

If she likes to soak up the sun during your family vacation,

she deserves to be insured.

No matter how unpredictable their nature, help make sure your pet's health expenses are covered.

Summer is filled with barbecues, fireworks, family and plenty of outdoor time. Keep your pet healthy and safe this summer with some helpful tips.

✔ Hot and humid outside?

Keep your pet inside during the hottest part of the day. Avoid hot pavement to prevent burns. Always provide fresh, cool water, and keep their coat properly maintained to allow air to circulate at the skin's surface.

✔ Loves to tag-along for a swim?

Invest in a bright life-jacket and be sure they are not swimming in algae-filled or contaminated water.

✔ Doesn't enjoy fireworks?

Keep your pets at home. Be sure they have access to their safe space or try masking the sound. Consider microchipping in case your frightened pet gets lost.

✔ Rolls around in the grass for fun?

Apply flea and tick repellent.
